

I don't feel the FCC should implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law.
Everyone has their rights, But they all END,
where others rights BEGIN.
We as homeowners should have the right to remain in our homes without being plagued by unwanted phone solicitations.
I view them as an intrusion upon my private home life.